Condition Critical: A New Moral Vision for Health Care (Speaker's Corner (Paperback)):

With medical costs skyrocketing and more Americans lacking adequate care, the debate over health care reform has escalated nationwide. Both state and federal policy makers are scrambling for a solution.

From the Publisher A controversial look at the difficult choices we will need to make to fix our health care system and why we must end "blank check" medicine. About the Author Richard D. Lamm is the codirector of the Institute for Public Policy Studies at the University of Denver and the former three-term governor of Colorado. A nationally recognized expert of healthcare issues, Lamm was chairman of the Pew Health Professions Commission and a public member of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education. Robert H. Blank, PhD, has taught, lectured, and written widely in the areas of comparative health policy, medical technology assessment, and biomedical policy. He currently teaches in Taiwan as a senior Fulbright lecturer, his third such award. He is also a research scholar at the New College in Florida and a visiting professor at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch.
