

(Free pdf) Moving Out: A Family Guide to Residential Planning for Adults with Disabilities

Moving Out: A Family Guide to Residential Planning for Adults with Disabilities

Dafna Krouk-Gordon, Barbara D. Jackins
ebooks | Download PDF | *ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#371475 in Books Woodbine House 2013-07-22Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 10.80 x .60 x 8.40l, 1.25
#File Name: 1606130218226 pages | File size: 63.Mb

Dafna Krouk-Gordon, Barbara D. Jackins : Moving Out: A Family Guide to Residential Planning for Adults with Disabilities before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Moving Out: A Family Guide to Residential Planning for Adults with Disabilities:

7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. A must for families with special needs childrenBy Barry GAn extremely difficult topic to have to read, but a truly must read! Takes families through all the different and best ways to having to eventually deal with the long term care of your special needs child after you can no longer do it yourself. So many wonderful ideas, something to help every family find what is right for them as well as for their child.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This book is an excellent resource for families and the people who work with ...By Constance M. HiltonI am an attorney who represents and advocates families with children with disabilities, including older children who are transitioning to adult services and/or need residential placements. This book is an excellent resource for families and the people who work with them. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.

Great resource for special needs families By familyfun Great reference material for current needs and future planning.

Finding the right residential situation for an adult child with an intellectual disability doesn't have to be overwhelming. The authors share decades of experience counseling families on housing options to help parents prepare themselves and their children for a new living arrangement. Discover the universal considerations most families should face before putting plans in place: -Planning early -Residential models -DIY or hire an agency? -Costs funding -Hiring staff -Group living -Legal ownership Use this authoritative guide (full of checklists and forms) to make educated decisions and secure the housing that's best for your child and family.

An accessible primer for parents of special-needs adults. --Library Journal The authors also offer an encouraging, unbiased discussion of basic nonprofit startup and the many legal and financial issues that entails. This is a strength of the book that parents are unlikely to see discussed in such depth elsewhere. --ForeWord s From the Inside Flap Finding the right residential situation for an adult child with an intellectual disability doesn't have to be overwhelming. The authors share decades of experience counseling families on housing options to help parents prepare themselves and their children for a new living arrangement. Discover the universal considerations most families should face before putting plans in place: Planning early Residential models DIY or hire an agency? Costs funding Hiring staff Group living Legal ownership Use this authoritative guide (full of checklists and forms) to make educated decisions and secure the housing that's best for your child and family. About the Author Dafna Krouk-Gordon is the founder and President of Toward Independent Living and Learning (TILL), a not-for-profit human service agency based in Dedham, Massachusetts. Barbara D. Jackins is a lawyer in Framingham, Massachusetts, concentrating on special needs planning, public benefits, guardianship, and trust administration.