Denise M. Schultheis : Nationwide Medical Transcription Service Directory: The Most Comprehensive Published Listing of Medical Transcription Service Professionals in the Uni before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nationwide Medical Transcription Service Directory: The Most Comprehensive Published Listing of Medical Transcription Service Professionals in the Uni:

Premier edition listing more than 600 medical transcription services throughout the U.S. An ideal reference for everyone seeking medical transcription services -- doctors, hospitals, clinics, transcriptionists looking for subcontractors or job opportunities, and groups or individuals planning to market to or network with medical transcriptionists. Alphabetical listing by state. Cross reference by owner / president. Index.

About the Author Denise M. Schulthesis is the owner of MediScript Transcription service. She conceived the idea for the directory a few years ago when her own business began to grow rapidly and she had difficulty locating subcontractors to handle transcription overflow. She began contracting services nationwide and collecting basic information as well as data about experience, certification, equipment used, and special services offered.
