Lawrence L. Martin : Total Quality Management in Human Service Organizations (SAGE Human Services Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Total Quality Management in Human Service Organizations (SAGE Human Services Guides):

Total Quality Management (TQM) is shaping the management of the 1990s. This book is the first to present TQM concepts with social service administrators in mind. With examples drawn from public administration, gerontology, public health and non-profit-making organizations, the book provides sound background information on TQM for practitioners.

About the Author Lawrence L. Martin is Professor of Public Affairs, Social Work and Public Administration at the University of Central Florida in Orlando. He was previously on the faculty of the Columbia University School of Social Work in New York City where he directed the program in social work administration. He is the author of 20 books and major monographs and over 100 articles and book chapters.
