Margaret Plews-Ogan, Gene Beyt : Wisdom Leadership in Academic Health Science Centers: Leading Positive Change (Culture, Context and Quality in Health Sciences Research, Education, Leadership and Patient Care) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Wisdom Leadership in Academic Health Science Centers: Leading Positive Change (Culture, Context and Quality in Health Sciences

Research, Education, Leadership and Patient Care):

Drs. Plews-Ogan and Beyt have brought together a highly valuable and coherent series of essays by multiple authors. These essays illuminate leadership for change in the rapidly evolving and stress-laden arena of health care. The target audience for the book is leadership in academic health centers, but the message applies with equal force to all of healthcare delivery.
